INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON “ARBITRATING INDO-UK COMMERCIAL DISPUTES – 3RD EDITION”
5th June 2025 – Church House Westminster, London, United Kingdom

Dear Sir/Madam,

Greetings from the Indian Council of Arbitration (ICA)!

We are pleased to invite you to participate in the 3rd Edition of the International Conference on “Arbitrating Indo-UK Commercial Disputes”, being organized by the Indian Council of Arbitration on 5th June 2025 at Church House Westminster, Deans Yard, Westminster, London, as part of London International Disputes Week (LIDW).

This year’s edition promises to be particularly significant, with the Hon’ble Judge of Supreme Court of India (who will assume office as Chief Justice of India on May 15), The Rt. Hon. Lord Briggs, Judge of the UK Supreme Court, and Mr. Arjun Ram Meghwal, Hon’ble Minister of Law & Justice, Government of India, confirming their participation. They will address the plenary session on June 5. The inaugural session will be followed by high-level discussions on key issues shaping the ADR landscape in India and the UK.

This high-level gathering will explore key developments in arbitration practices, the Indo-UK legal interface, and evolving trends in resolving cross-border commercial disputes. The conference promises rich dialogue and networking opportunities with global legal luminaries.

We would be honoured by your presence at the conference. You are also welcome to depute relevant executives/colleagues from your organization to participate.

To confirm your participation, please register by 4th June 2025 using the link below:
